

Savanna Shapes Up With New Fitness Center

3211 City Place

EDGEWATER, NJ—Savanna, the developers of The Peninsula at City Place, has partnered with CANDO Fitness to create a customized health and spa package exclusively for residents of the luxury condominium community along the Hudson River in Edgewater, NJ.

Located at 3211 City Place in Edgewater, the condominium tower features 201 one- and two-bedroom condominium residences. Purchasers will receive a free one-year membership to CANDO, including locker and laundry service, and several pre-paid training and spa sessions. The Peninsula also has a fitness center.

“Residents at Peninsula experience a thriving retail community located right outside their front door, and this vibrant, convenient lifestyle continues to attract new buyers,” said Angela Ferrara, VP of sales for The Marketing Directors, Inc., the community’s sales and marketing agent. “This partnership enhances that sought-after, in-town lifestyle by giving our residents an exclusive opportunity to enjoy one of the finest businesses in the City Place community, CANDO Fitness.”

CANDO also has clubs in Short Hills, NJ and Princeton, NJ. Earlier this year Savanna Partners announced a partnership with design showroom BoConcept that provides purchasers with significant discounts on furniture and designer finishes.

Focusing primarily on the markets surrounding New York City, Boston and Washington DC, New York City-based Savanna Partners’ portfolio includes such investments as office buildings in Midtown Manhattan and the Hudson Valley Business Center.

Categories: Mid-Atlantic, Multifamily, Residential, New Jersey